

Newmarket Scientific Equality Policy – November 2021

1. POLICY STATEMENT

1. Newmarket Scientific recognises that discrimination and victimisation is unacceptable and that it is in the interests of the company and its employees to utilise the skills of the total workforce. It is the aim of the company to ensure that no employee or job applicant receives less favourable facilities or treatment (either directly or indirectly) in recruitment or employment on grounds of age, disability, gender / gender reassignment, marriage / civil partnership, pregnancy / maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation (the protected characteristics).
2. We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination or victimisation. To that end the purpose of this policy is to provide equality and fairness for all in our employment.
3. All employees, whether part-time, full-time or temporary, will be treated fairly and with respect. Selection for employment, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the effectiveness of the organisation.
4. Our staff will not discriminate directly or indirectly, or harass customers or clients because of age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, and sexual orientation in the provision of the company's goods and services.
5. This policy and the associated arrangements shall operate in accordance with statutory requirements. In addition, full account will be taken of any guidance or Codes of Practice issued by the Equality and Human Rights Commission, any Government Departments, and any other statutory bodies.

2. OUR COMMITMENT

- To create an environment in which individual differences and the contributions of all our staff are recognised and valued.
- Every employee is entitled to a working environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.
- Training, development and progression opportunities are available to all staff.
- To promote equality in the workplace which we believe is good management practice and makes sound business sense.
- We will review all our employment practices and procedures regularly to ensure fairness.
- Breaches of our equality policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings.
- This policy is fully supported by senior management.
- The policy will be reviewed annually

3. RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT

Responsibility for ensuring the effective implementation and operation of the arrangements will rest with the Managing Director who will ensure that all staff operate within this policy and arrangements, and that all reasonable and practical steps are taken to avoid discrimination. The managing director will ensure that:

- all staff are aware of the policy and the arrangements, and the reasons for the policy;
- grievances concerning discrimination are dealt with properly, fairly and as quickly as possible;
- proper records are maintained.

The Managing Director will be responsible for monitoring the operation of the policy in respect of employees and job applicants.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES OF STAFF

Responsibility for ensuring that there is no unlawful discrimination rests with all staff and the attitudes of staff are crucial to the successful operation of fair employment practices. In particular, all members of staff should:

- comply with the policy and arrangements
- not discriminate in their day to day activities or induce others to do so
- not victimise, harass or intimidate other staff or groups who have, or are perceived to have one of the protected characteristics.
- ensure no individual is discriminated against or harassed because of their association with another individual who has a protected characteristic.
- inform their manager if they become aware of any discriminatory practice.

5. THIRD PARTIES

Third-party harassment occurs where a company employee is harassed, and the harassment is related to a protected characteristic, by third parties such as clients or customers. Newmarket Scientific will not tolerate such actions against its staff, and the employee concerned should inform their manager at once that this has occurred. Newmarket Scientific will fully investigate and take all reasonable steps to ensure such harassment does not happen again.

6. RELATED POLICIES AND ARRANGEMENTS

All employment policies and arrangements have a bearing on equality of opportunity. The company policies will be reviewed regularly and any discriminatory elements removed.

7. RIGHTS OF DISABLED PEOPLE

The company attaches particular importance to the needs of disabled people. Under the terms of this policy, managers are required to:

- make reasonable adjustment to maintain the services of an employee who becomes disabled, for example, training, provision of special equipment, reduced working hours.
- include disabled people in training/development programmes;
- give full and proper consideration to disabled people who apply for jobs, having regard to making reasonable adjustments for their particular aptitudes and abilities to allow them to be able to do the job.

8. EQUALITY TRAINING

All staff will be trained on this policy and will be required to sign to confirm that they have understood it. Equality information is also included in induction programmes.

9. GRIEVANCES/DISCIPLINE

Employees have a right to pursue a complaint concerning discrimination or victimisation with the managing director. Discrimination and victimisation will be treated as disciplinary offences.

10. REVIEW

The effectiveness of this policy and associated arrangements will be reviewed annually under the direct supervision of the Managing Director.
